I like the clean design of the website and the clear, concise description of Sonata Learning's approach to developing courses and videos.

Also, I love the variety of the courses and videos I looked through.

Finally, I am impressed with how well Sonata Learning made almost every course and video I looked at engaging and effective.

Sonata Learning makes information engaging, which translates into accessible.

I like helping people and I want to be part of the Sonata Learning team that makes information accessible globally. I want to help create these courses and videos.

If I am unsuccessful this round, I will keep applying to Sonata Learning as many times as it takes.
